
8.0.0 STRIKER

8.1.0 Striker Defined

A striker is anyone who participates in: (1) a strike or concerted stoppage of work by employees, or (2) any concerted slowdown or other interruption of operations by employees.

A person is a striker whether or not s/he personally voted for the strike. Consider a striker to be on strike until s/he actually returns to work.

8.1.1 Lockout

If a person is not going to work because the company has imposed a lockout, do not consider him/her a striker.

8.1.2 Unemployment Compensation

If a person is receiving unemployment compensation, do not consider him/her a striker.

8.2.0 Policy

With the following exceptions, the striker and anyone in the fiscal group for whom s/he is legally responsible is ineligible for MA.

Being on strike isn't good cause for leaving employment or refusing to seek or accept employment.

8.2.1 Exceptions

Do not determine the following to be ineligible for MA, even if s/he or someone in his/her fiscal group is a striker:

1. Minor children.
2. Pregnant woman who is otherwise eligible for MA and MA/Healthy Start.
3. Anyone eligible for an MA Extension.
4. Anyone 65 years of age or older.
5. Anyone who is blind.
6. Anyone who is disabled.
